

HOUSTON (FEBRUARY 14, 2024) – Koslov Larsen is pleased to announce its participation in the Affordable Art Fair’s inaugural edition in Austin, TX this May 2024. Alongside other exceptional local, national, and international galleries, Koslov Larsen will exhibit original contemporary artworks priced at $10,000 and below. The fair is a fantastic opportunity for both new and seasoned collectors to discover accessible artworks by established artists and rising stars.

Koslov Larsen will present selections from its roster of gallery artists, each working with the photographic medium in fresh and innovative ways. Often operating in and around the spaces between sculpture, painting, and collage, the artists explore complex dynamics with processes that prompt deeper discussion. ABOUT AFFORDABLE ART FAIR:

The very first edition of the Affordable Art Fair took place in London's Battersea Park in October 1999. Ten thousand art lovers descended upon the fair to browse and buy thousands of original contemporary paintings, sculptures, photographs and prints in a relaxed and friendly environment. They now hold fairs in 10 cities around the world including London, New York, Hong Kong, Hamburg, Amsterdam, Brussels, Singapore, Stockholm, Melbourne and Sydney, with three new fairs launching in 2024 – Austin, Berlin and Brisbane. Each year they welcome nearly 220,000 art enthusiasts to their fairs globally, where visitors can discover a mix of local, national and international galleries showcasing a wide array of affordable artworks by established artists and rising stars.

Each edition of the fair is filled with a creative smorgasbord of artist performances, innovative talks and tours, hands-on workshops, kid's activities, live music and irresistible restaurants and bars; making them an ideal day out with family and friends. Since its humble beginnings, over 3.3 million people have visited an Affordable Art Fair around the world, taking home over 600,000 pieces of artwork to loving new homes.

Alongside New York City, Austin will be the only other fair location in the United States. Affordable Art Fair selected Austin based on its already vibrant local art and music scene, the lack of any other art fairs in the city, and the strong demand for exciting contemporary art coming from a burgeoning group of collectors, buyers, and art lovers.
