Photography

My passion for photography started when I was a young boy growing up in Cairo and it continued with me till today. My areas of interest include street photography, urban and natural landscape photography.

Below are highlights of my journey as a photographer during the past 15 years.

- Currently I am represented by the Foto Relevance gallery in Houston, TX
- Between 2007 through 2015 I was a permanent member of Archway Gallery in Houston, TX.
- Throughout the years I have won numerous juried competitions ( e.g Texas Photographic Society, National Geographic, SE center of photography, Popular photography, Foto Fest participating spaces, among others) and a number of my photos were included in their exhibits, print and online publications
- A number of my photographs have been acquired by individual collectors, as well as by public and private corporations.
